GOOD SAMARITAN INNKEEPER SAVES LIFE OF ODD FELLOW

Brother Who Had Been Suffering from Ptomaine Poisoning,
Said Odd Fellowship Is the Best Assurance
Society in the World

By C. A. WHEELER
Deputy Grand Sire

Forty years ago I knew a brother Odd Fellow whose name was Sam Pickens. Brother Pickens belonged to a little country lodge located near where he owned a small farm. Brother Pickens was just about able to make a living on the farm for his wife and children and give them the ordinary comforts of farm life.

Brother Pickens was one of the most enthusiastic Odd Fellows I ever knew and my acquaintance with him began when he visited the lodge of which I was a member, and on which occasion he rode horseback about fifteen miles in order to make this lodge visit. I was so impressed with his enthusiasm and sincerity until I asked him what had so inspired him in behalf of Odd Fellowship, and he then told me the story which I give below as nearly in the words of Brother Sam Pickens as I can remember them.

"I became an Odd Fellow five years ago and enjoyed very much the degree work and the social features of the lodge. I never thought much about how Odd Fellowship could benefit me or how much I could benefit Odd Fellowship until this last summer when the railroads ran an excursion from all over our section of the country to Galveston and return. I had worked hard and I had made a good crop and since I had never been to Galveston I decided to go.

I purchased a round trip excursion ticket, boarded the train and in due time arrived in Galveston. I was a stranger to everyone but this did not bother me at the time. I was able bodied and had enough money in my pocket for my necessary expenses and a return ticket home. It was summer time and I really had no need for a hotel so I just walked about all evening and part of the night seeing the sights of the city, feeling sure that if I got tired and needed a room I would have no trouble in finding one. Like the country boy that I was, I tried out several new fangled dishes, sea foods of various kinds, for my dinner, all of which I enjoyed eating immensely. About eleven o'clock that night while walking along the beach, I became very ill and it seems to me that in less time than it takes to tell it I thought I was dying. I did become unconscious.

"The next thing I knew I awoke in a bed in a strange room feeling so ill until I did not care where I was nor how I got there, but realized it was daylight and the sun was shining. In a few minutes a man whom I never saw before came in the room with some black coffee which he forced me to drink. He refused to talk to me further than to say 'drink this and keep quiet.' I promptly vomited up the coffee he gave me but within a few minutes he was back with more coffee which I had to drink, and for the next hour or so I was given coffee every ten or fifteen minutes until I quit vomiting.

"I gradually gathered my wits together and the man then told me that I had been found on the street the night before, dead to the world, and apparently very ill. The party who found me gave the alarm and the man who had been giving me coffee came upon the scene. This man was a brother Odd Fellow and he discovered upon the lapel of my coat a pin bearing the three links, and for which I remember I had paid fifteen cents. He had me carried to the room in which I found myself, and which was a room in a small hotel operated by the brother who was ministering to me. He had had the doctor with me twice before I regained consciousness and the doctor had said that I had an extremely bad case of ptomaine poisoning, and had instructed my host to give me black coffee to drink until I quit vomiting.

"I was so ill and weak that I was compelled to remain there with my host for a week. The little money I had with me was insufficient to pay for my doctor bills, medicine and hotel room; and my return excursion ticket expired before I was able to go home. My host, the inn-keeper, was truly a good samaritan. Somehow he managed to have my return ticket extended so that I could go home on it, paid my doctor bill and then gave me money for incidental expenses when I was ready to go home, saying that 'when I came that way again I could repay him.' I sent him the money as soon as I got home.

"I firmly believe I would have died had it not been for the fact that I was an Odd Fellow with fifteen cents invested in an emblem of the order which I was wearing, and that I was found by a real Odd Fellow.

"After I reached home, I thought over my experience very carefully and I promised myself that I would try to be a good Odd Fellow for the rest of my days and that I would visit some lodge other than my own at least once a month, and that is why I am here at your lodge tonight."

Sam Pickens lived several years after the incident related above. He was a good citizen and an enthusiastic Odd Fellow to the time of his death and I have heard him say more than once, "Odd Fellowship is not an insurance company, but it is the best assurance society in the world."

The chain of Odd Fellows is only as strong as its weakest lodge; work to make your link in the chain the strongest!

What the Lodges Are Doing

Grand Master's Report on Subordinate Lodges

Since my last message to this paper, one of the greatest victories has been made possible that the world has ever known, and let us all hope that it shall be everlasting peace. The cost of this we shall never know. The freedom that it has given to us to enjoy, we should be most thankful for.

It is a great pleasure for me to report on the work of Subordinate Lodges for the first six months of 1945. A good percentage of the lodges report a gain in membership, and most lodges are looking forward to a still bigger gain in the last half of the year. I am very grateful to the members of the jurisdiction of Alberta for the great interest taken in Odd Fellowship and the splendid work that they are carrying out. I trust that no lodge shall overlook that very important duty of looking after the members in the different branches of service upon their return to civilian life. Let us show them how much we appreciate what they have done for those of us who worked hard to keep things going during their absence from our lodges. To those boys we owe a debt which we can never repay as we would like to. They have made it possible for us to enjoy that freedom which means the most precious thing in life itself. But let us not lose sight of the fact that it was made possible only by the co-operation of the countries representing the Allied nations.

In closing, a reminder to the D.D.G.M.'s of the various districts—Please see that all your lodges send in their reports, if they have not already done so.

Thanking you,

CHARLES FOX,
Grand Master.

D.G.M.'s Son Back From Active Service

Just five years and eleven months from the day that he enlisted with the Calgary Highlanders' Pipe Band, Sgt. David Woodard returned to the city.

On Sept. 14, 1939, Sgt. Woodard signed up with the Calgary Highlanders' Pipe Band and after training in Calgary and Camp Shilo went overseas in August, 1940. He served in camps in England and transferred to the Armoured Corps in 1942. He specialized in tank gunnery. He was raised to the rank of Sergeant to become an instructor in the Royal Military College at Sandhurst in 1943. He was the first man not an Englishman to hold this honor.

The R.M.C. is over 400 years old and is considered Britain's leading military college. It was used as the Canadian officer cadet training unit in England.

After serving nine months in the R.M.C., he was assigned to active duty with the Calgary Regt. (Tanks) in Holland.

Upon signing for the Canadian army Pacific force, he was repatriated to Canada for a thirty-day leave.

Before leaving for overseas he was an employee of Bro. R. A. Godson, editor of the Alberta Odd Fellow.

Sgt. Woodard was educated at McDougall public and Victoria high schools, Edmonton. He was a member of the First Baptist church.

Sgt. David Woodard is the one on the left in the picture while the other is his brother, Mark, who is still in England. Mark went overseas at the same time with the Calgary band and was transferred early in 1941 to the band of the 1st Btn. Black Watch (R.H.R.). He landed with the regiment on the coast of Normandy in 1944 and was evacuated to England with operational exhaustion. He was then assigned to the Canadian Postal Corps and is at the present time with No. 5 Canadian Repat. Depot, England.

Grand Master on Visit to Beiseker

I may advise you that our lodge, Beiseker No. 84, I.O.O.F., is closed at present for harvesting as most of our members are from the country. Therefore we have had no correspondent appointed.

I received your supplies and I expect you will be hearing from us regularly after the fall term gets going again. We have lost a number of our good members. Bro. Fulton and Bro. Weatherly both moved to Vulcan, Bro. D. Schissler moved to Stavely, Bro. J. Greer is retired from active service and has been wandering all over Canada and the United States looking for a better place to live, but as far as I can learn he hasn't found it yet. Bro. Fred Arnold has sold out and is leaving our district; he is going somewhere but he doesn't know just where, and Bro. C. Lester has transferred to Alberta No. 1. I can assure these brothers that their loss to our lodge is felt very keenly and is hard to make up.

We have initiated two new members this year and have prospects of other members, but still we do not like to lose the old members.

Our Grand Lodge officers have been very good to us. We have had a visit from our Grand Master, Brother Charlie Fox, and also a visit from our D.G.M., Brother Woodard, and assure you that both visits were appreciated very much. The D.D.G.M. for District No. 17, Brother Reding, is a member of our lodge and has been giving us splendid assistance as well as serving the district very efficiently.—F.A.L.

Check your lodge card carefully and see that the names of your officers are listed correctly. If your lodge is not listed there, attend to it at the next meeting night.

Friendship Plans 52nd Anniversary

On Tuesday evening, September 25, Friendship Lodge No. 7, Edmonton, will observe the fifty-second anniversary of the institution of the lodge with a Roll Call of members. It is hoped by the committee in charge that every member that can possibly do so, will make a very earnest effort to be present, and assist in making the affair the success that it should be.

Invitations have gone out to Grand Master Brother Fox, and the Deputy Grand Master, Brother Woodard, to be with us, and it is our sincere wish that any previous arrangements or commitments that these officers may have made will not prevent them taking part with us in our Roll Call.

An invitation is herewith extended to all members of the Order to be with us also, and join this fraternal gathering. There will be a short program, and refreshments at the close of the meeting, so brothers, please keep this date open, and plan to be at No. 7 on the 25th of September. We know that you will enjoy the evening.—G.S.MeA.

Thirteen Candidates Are Given Degrees

The degrees on a class of candidates which commenced on Aug. 3, were finally completed on the evening of Aug. 17. At this meeting candidates were present from three lodges, Hillhurst No. 46, Bassano No. 53 and Bow Valley No. 89, Cochrane. The Second Degree was conferred on Bros. H. Schaffer, Ruben Schaffer and Marvin Meidinger of No. 53, and Bros. L. Coleman, W. Barkley, A. E. Callaway, G. Taylor, F. Coleman and J. Craig of No. 89. The above named brothers also received the Third Degree in company with Bros. R. L. Marcellus, F. Lott, M. Kean and F. Calow from Hillhurst No. 46, making thirteen candidates in all to receive degrees at this meeting. After transacting the usual lodge business, waiting for candidates who were a little late in arriving, for conferring of both degrees, it was still possible to close the meeting and have the visitors away home at shortly after 12 o'clock.

The lodge noted with pleasure the presence of Grand Master C. Fox, of Crossfield, as well as visitors from Nos. 46, 53 and 89 and local lodges, many of whom assisted in the degrees. Summer degrees are not easy to confer with so many away on holidays, but with the co-operation displayed this year, some very creditable and impressive work was accomplished. All that remains is for No. 1 to get a class of candidates of their own for the fall, and indications point very strongly that way.

Edmonton was represented at the meeting of Aug. 24 in the person of Bro. Andy Browning. His Calgary friends were sorry to learn of his illness but pleased to know that he is now on the mend. When Andy left for Victoria he took with him the best wishes of his friends for a speedy recovery. Perhaps on his way home, he will visit officially as Grand Senior Warden of the Grand Encampment of Alberta. Someone also reported seeing P.G.M. Arthur Young in Banff over the Labor Day week-end.

To dwell on the eventful evening of Aug. 31, might be just a trifle too much for those who will have to read about rather than to have participated in No. 1's annual corn feed. Once again Bro. Sing Cope, ably assisted by his Chinese cousins, responded to the appeal and twenty dozen of Medicine Hat's finest ears arrived at the appointed time. Needless to say, the members of Esther Rebekah and wives of the members were there as in years gone by. Bro. Doc. Chapelle was in his element as chief bull-cook and had the corn and weiners done to a turn. There was barely sufficient corn to go around and that with some of our heavy eating members and friends unavoidably absent or indisposed. Knives were provided for those handicapped with store teeth. Altogether it was quite an event.

To be quite frank, Sing and his good lady get quite a kick out of their part although unable to take advantage of the invitation to attend. This year they sent in some extra corn and cucumbers which were auctioned off in aid of the Crippled Children's Fund, to the tune of 13 "bucks." This will make a welcome donation to the fund from Sing and his wife.

Prior to adjourning to the banquet room, Bro. T. Thomas, late of the Edmonton Regt. and the Eighth Army, reviewed the Italian campaign from the landing in Sicily through to the breaking of the Hitler line, or, according to Tommy, until they decided that he and quite a percentage of his outfit, having been in two wars, were getting a bit too old for that sort of thing and sent him off home. Then a visitor, Bro. Peter Dean, of North Attleboro, Mass., (somewhere in and around Boston), regaled the crowd with many humorous incidents. P.G.M. Jim Cousins, Bellevue, reserved his remarks until after dinner and was forced to admit that he was too full for words. Several visitors for No. 46 behaved themselves very well in company. These included D.D.G.M. Palfrey and Correspondent (?) F. Hodges.

Could it be that Bro. R. R. Annett, Vice Grand of Consort No. 119, and R. Ross Annett who contributes those delightful dry-belt stories about Big and Little Joe, Babe and Uncle Pete to the Post are one and the same? According to Keeping Posted the author hails from those parts. If so, he has one more admirer in this correspondent who would not miss one of his yarns for a whole lot.

Whoever dignified that glorified sheep-dip as hair tonic better try his hand at popularizing second-hand garlic. It all smells like a plot to keep some folks single the rest of their days. The neighbor's dog wouldn't stand for it and he did not have to wait until his "best friends told him" either.

—C.W.Me.

25-Year Jewels to Four Odd Fellows

The Halkirk I.O.O.F. Lodge held an installation meeting recently, officials visiting from Erskine and Stettler being in charge, with B. T. Morgan, retiring Noble Grand, succeeded by D. B. Collins, Noble Grand. At the conclusion of the business meeting the I.O.O.F. and Rebekah lodges entertained the sons of members of this lodge who have served with the Armed Forces, F/O H. A. (Alan) Taylor, D.F.M.; F/O J. A. Taylor, P/O Stan Taylor, P/O Ken Taylor, P/O R. Creasey; a former lodge brother, Tpr. A. Heffer, as well as the immediate families of the guests of honor. Following lunch an impressive ceremony took place when W. H. Taylor, T. H. Taylor, E. O. Gale and B. T. Morgan received their 25-year jewels. These were presented by R. Hamilton of Stettler lodge and each responded with a short address telling when and where they had received their initiation. Mr. Hingston was then called upon to present to the guests of honor, as a memento, a signed and sealed scroll testifying to our appreciation of the gallantry and sacrifice given by them in World War II, and the honor they have brought to our town and district. Each guest in turn responded with a few well chosen words of appreciation for the privilege of being present. Owing to the absence of P/O R. Creasey, due to illness, Mrs. W. Creasey accepted and responded in his name. The evening was brought to a successful conclusion by singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows," ending with the National Anthem.

Uncle Roy says: "My tires aren't so good any more. The air is beginning to show through."

Hillhurst Lodge Resumes Activities

Since the last issue of this paper some more dirty water has gone under the bridge, and the last of our enemies has bitten the dust and cried "Enough." As we rejoice that peace once again has come to the world, let us pause for a while and give thanks to Almighty God for his many mercies and for His goodness in giving us the victory. Let us also pray that there shall be no more wars, and that the brotherhood of man under the Fatherhood of God will be upon this world. Let us also commend to His care and protection all those who have been bereaved, and those who are sick and suffering because of the conflict just ended. Let us also pray that the powers that govern us will put the same amount of brains, energy and money into winning the peace as they did in winning the war.

The lodge has just enjoyed a short vacation, no meeting for two weeks. They have been busy with degree work since the beginning of the year and figured they had earned a rest. However, that's all over and business as usual is the order of the day. Bro. Menzies took out another application form at the last meeting, and he generally brings them back filled in with the usual fee attached.

Our financial secretary, too, is on the job, and taking no chances on any of you boys short changing him. He is getting a new light for his desk, and that should throw a little more light on the subject. The treasurer, Bro. A. Hodges, too, is in the news. He got first prize for his garden, and I understand the second prize went to the Vice Grand's family. Too bad they didn't come down and judge mine.

I have to put a line in here too about a member of Alberta No. 1. He has dug a hole in the ground, close to Bro. Woods' grocery store. I understand he is going to nail a few pieces of lumber together to cover the said hole in the ground. Might turn out to be a nice bungalow. He is manager of a well known lumber company in town, so should make something out of it. However, I understand the plans call for a fifty-foot tunnel and that should just about come out in the basement of the said grocery store. Better set up your rat traps, Bert. Never know what you might catch.

A gang of the boys went over to No. 1 a few weeks ago, to watch the conferring of the second and third degrees on a class of candidates from Bassano, Cochrane and our own lodge. The work was very well done, and the candidates were duly impressed. I think the secretary should apply for special dispensation next time they hold a meeting on Saturday morning. But I must congratulate No. 1 on the excellent corn roast. I felt kind of guilty barging in on it, so guilty, in fact, that I was only able to eat four ears of corn and a couple of hot dogs. Had I been invited I would have felt more like eating something.

Page Red Stewart. We have missed him for some time now. He is believed to be down Saskatchewan way somewhere, helping out with the harvest, but the farmer down there will be glad when he leaves and takes his appetite with him.

Well, that's all for now. Don't forget your lodge meeting night. We shall be glad to see you.—F.W.H.

200 at Edmonton Memorial Service

Attended by more than 200 members, the annual memorial service of Edmonton lodges, I.O.O.F., was held at Edmonton cemetery at 3:00 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 26.

The chairman was Bro. Gordon McArthur, while an impressive memorial address was given by Rev. Daniel Young.

The service opened with the chairman reading the memorial proclamation, after which the hymn, "Rock of Ages, Cleft for Me," was sung. The chaplain then led in prayer.

Names of members who died during the past year were read by the secretary, Bro. Dave Wilson, P.G.P., P.G.R.

Next on the program was the singing of a duet, "In the Morning Land," by Sisters Henderson and Peterson, of Unity Rebekah Lodge No. 26.

After the address by Rev. Mr. Young the hymn, "Sun of My Soul, Thou Saviour Dear," was sung. This was followed by the benediction given by the chaplain.

The Death Roll contained the following names: Bro. John R. Morley, Bro. Henry Kelly, Bro. George Dawe, P.G., Bro. J. A. Case, Bro. George Hutchinson, P.G., Bro. James McFarlane, P.G., Bro. Archie Donald, P.G., Bro. A. Cyrel Thoms, Sis. Louisa Smith, Sis. Margaret Fowler.

Lodges represented at the service were: Friendship Lodge No. 7, Edmonton Lodge No. 30, Norwood Lodge No. 41, Namayo Lodge No. 47, Edmonton Encampment No. 2, Patriarchs Militant No. 1, Northern Alberta Veteran Odd Fellows Association, Maple Leaf

Rebekah Lodge No. 2, Jewel Rebekah Lodge No. 25, Unity Rebekah Lodge No. 26, Ladies' Auxiliary Canton Edmonton No. 1.

Memorial Service Of Calgary Lodges

Annual memorial service of the I.O.O.F., held at the Union cemetery, Calgary, on Sunday, Aug. 12, drew a large attendance. The service commenced at 3:00 p.m.

Members of five subordinate lodges attended, made up of Alberta No. 1; Sandstone City Lodge No. 17; St. George's Lodge No. 39; Hillhurst Lodge No. 46 and Crescent Lodge No. 81.

From the Rebekahs there were members from Esther Rebekah Lodge No. 1; Naomi Rebekah Lodge No. 12; Anoka Rebekah Lodge No. 21; Sandstone Rebekah Lodge No. 83.

Also represented were Alberta Encampment No. 1; Canton Calgary No. 2; Veteran Odd Fellows' Association; Odd Fellows' Service Board and Ladies' Auxiliary Patriarchs Militant.

Bro. W. C. Gordon, Grand Warden, presided at the service, which opened with the singing of the hymn, O God Our Help in Ages Past.

A prayer by Bro. Rev. L. F. Rowe, B.A., was followed by a solo by Sister A. Walsh, Anoka No. 21. The Scripture Lesson was given by Sister Ada Day, secretary of the Rebekah Assembly. Bro. M. S. Saunders, P.G.M., P.G.R., read the Roll of the Dead.

Bro. Rev. Rowe gave the principal address of the memorial service, and this was followed by the hymn, "Onward Christian Soldiers." Bro. Rev. Rowe closer the service with the benediction. The accompanist was Sister E. Sayers, Anoka No. 21.

Listed on the Death Roll since last Memorial day were: Calgary members: No. 1, Bro. H. D. Aldous; No. 17, Bro. George Hunter, Bro. J. L. Richard, Bro. J. Dinning, Bro. T. H. Avery; Sisters, No. 1, Sisters E. Hicks, Winnipeg; Sister M. Loudon, Calgary; No. 21, Sis. E. L. Tuppling.

Out-of-town members—Bro. T. Cope-land, Langdon Lodge, No. 40, Langdon, Alta.; Bro. H. Jenkins, St. Lawrence Lodge No. 8, Charlottetown, P.E.I.

"I'll bet you think twice before leaving that wife of yours alone in the evenings."

"I'll say! First I have to think up an excuse for going out, and then a reason why she can't come with me."

Deputy G. M. Visits Northern Lodges

Bro. A. C. Woodard, D.G.M., made a visit to lodges in District No. 32, in the Peace River country, during August. On Aug. 21, he arrived by train at Spirit River, where he was met by Bro. P. M. Hamilton, D.D.G.M.

They proceeded to Grande Prairie where at night they attended the regular meeting of Prairie City Lodge No. 135. When the lodge program was ended, they all went to the banquet room where a nice lunch was served.

Bro. Woodard's inspiring address will long be remembered with appreciation by the lodge members.

On the following day Bro. Woodard and Bro. Hamilton were accompanied by Bro. Watcher and Bro. Stredulinsky for a trip to the top of Richmond Hill, where the golf course is located.

There the party observed the fine view, with grain fields, lakes and hills as far as one could see. The return trip to Grande Prairie was made past the airport. At night Bro. Woodard and Bro. Hamilton returned by train to Spirit River.

Regular meeting of Spirit River Lodge No. 134 was held on the night of Aug. 22, attended by Bro. Woodard. During the meeting the D.G.M. officiated as acting Noble Grand to reinstate Bro. D. Bozarth from Heart Valley by defunct lodge card.

Following the lodge meeting, the sisters of Busy Bee Rebekah Lodge served a delightful lunch. Bro. Woodard later addressed the brothers and sisters, his instructive remarks making a deep impression.

The next day, the D.G.M., accompanied by Bro. Hamilton, went to Dunvegan and saw some of the historical points of interest at that old settlement on the banks of the Peace River. They visited the old Anglican mission and the grave of the first white child born in the Peace River country.

The grave has a little wooden fence around it, but this is in need of repair. On Bro. Woodard's suggestion, the Odd Fellows of Spirit River intend to see that proper repairs are made.

Returning to Spirit River the D.G.M. was the dinner guest of Bro. Hamilton and Sister Hamilton. After assisting Sis. Hamilton with some Rebekah work, Bro. Woodard left later by train for Edmonton, carrying the best wishes of Prairie City Lodge No. 135 and Spirit River Lodge No. 136. A visit from a Grand Lodge officer does northern lodges, so far away from grand lodge, a world of good.—P.M.H.

First Degree Team In Action at Czar

Seventeen brothers from Provost Lodge No. 139 motored to Czar on the evening of August 22nd., reporting a pleasant visit.

A goodly number of brothers from Killam were present with their first degree team and very ably conferred the first degree on eight new candidates from Provost Lodge.

Hughenden Lodge was represented by Bro. Cootes and others, making a total of 44 signing the register. It was a fine get-together.

A bounteous lunch of cake and sandwiches was provided by the Czar Lodge.

A few well chosen words pertaining to the work of the lodge were given the new members by Bro. Gork, P.G., of Killam, D.D.G.M. Bro. Richards and Bro. Hobbs, P.G., of Czar, and Bro. Winters, P.G., of Provost.

The Provost brothers say well done and "thank you," to Killam degree team. We'd like to come again to the Czar Lodge for the swell lunch and hospitality.—S.D.

New Noble Grand For Ryley Lodge

Our lodge, Ryley No. 75, I.O.O.F., has appointed ("forced" is a more accurate word), this fellow to be your correspondent. As such he is not much, though he is the best we ever had. (We never had any before.) Whenever we have something to do that none of us know how, it is usually left to him or the secretary.

Ryley No. 75 had a real grand meeting on Aug. 28th, with about 85 per cent of possible present. We had the pleasure of reinstating two old members of the lodge, one a charter member. We also initiated the son of one of them into membership in the Order. The other has two sons, both members of our lodge and both in the services. We are also baiting another old timer, and hope to bring him to gaff this fall. He is a very fine fellow, though he never belonged to our lodge.

As his company had moved our Noble Grand to another locality, we had to elect a new one, and Bro. Jens Christofferson was the unanimous choice.

At our next meeting, Sept. 11, we aim to confer both the first and second degrees on our new initiate, as he will be leaving for the coast shortly. Should there be any brothers, anywhere, who would like to learn how these degrees should really be put on, they are most cordially invited to visit our lodge on that date. Of course, we are glad to receive visitors any other date, too.

Of the Grand Master's famous 5 Points, the first three are very well kept here. The other two are not too pressing with us at present.

At the banquet table, after the meeting, Matt told his famed initiation story, the one about the 19 who were not there. It is a scary story! This is by no means Matt's only story, but it is his special for the new initiates.

One of the aforementioned old timers said he felt somewhat like the Prodigal Son must have felt when he returned to his father's arms. There is no doubt our ham sandwiches tasted better than the "husks" he may have had while out of the fold.—E.

Elston Lodge Has Splendid Record

Complying with Grand Sire Munroe's good will proclamation, Elston Lodge No. 138, Elston, Sask., initiated three candidates on July 4th. North Star No. 67, Saskatoon, conferred the first degree for us on July 13th in a very creditable manner.

Grand Master Macklem attended this meeting and gave a very inspiring address.

Elston conferred the second degree on July 18th, and the third degree on August 15th. The Elston brothers are very proud of what they think is a unique record in that they have not had to show any outstanding dues on the semi-annual reports to Grand Lodge for four consecutive terms.

They had nearly one-third of their membership enlisted in the Armed Forces and so far all the boys are on top. Six of these brothers are back now and assisting the others in keeping the meetings lively and interesting.

Come on, you Saskatchewan Lodges, we want a share of the interesting doings as well as Alberta, even if they have to josh one another about hair tonic and mange cure. How about it, Louie Neale, Regina, No. 6?—C.L.H.

Lodges Stage Two Softball Contests

Sunnyslope Lodge visited Acme Lodge August 7th, and played softball and then were visitors at our regular meeting.

On August 16th, Acme Lodge visited Sunnyslope for a return game, and visited the Sunnyslope Lodge at its regular meeting.—W.S.

GRAND MASTER JOHN MACKLEM HEADS SASKATCHEWAN LODGES

Grand Lodge Holds 38th Annual Session at Saskatoon With Large Attendance; Impressive Memorial Service Held; Program Feature

The thirty-eighth annual session of the Grand Lodge of Saskatchewan, I.O.O.F., was held in the I.O.O.F. Temple, 21st Street East, in the city of Saskatoon, on Wednesday and Thursday, June 13th and 14th, 1945.

On Wednesday evening, June 13th, a public reception, concert, buffet supper and dance was held in the Legion hall under the auspices of the Saskatoon Rebekah and Odd Fellow lodges. In the unavoidable absence of His Worship the Mayor, Alderman F. C. Cronkite extended a welcome on behalf of the city to the visitors.

The concert, which had been arranged by the local committee, consisted of musical numbers, fancy dancing, singing, and other items of interest, a feature of the program being the youthfulness of the artists, and of particular interest was the Scottish dance executed by two very young children. Another outstanding item was a violin ensemble by eight boys. The program was an outstanding success, and was splendidly received by the large audience present.

Following the singing and musical numbers, Brother James S. Lombard, Grand Chaplain of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and special deputy of the Grande Sire, addressed the gathering, and his address was followed by addresses by Sister Frances Kalman, President of the Rebekah Assembly, and Brother Jas. A. Hagerman, Past Grand Sire. At the conclusion of the program a buffet supper was served, which was followed by a dance, with Jay Van's orchestra supplying the music. It was a very fine evening's entertainment for the visiting Sisters and Brothers, and great credit is due the local committee for the arrangements made by it.

On Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock, Queen Esther Rebekah Lodge No. 5, Saskatoon, and Miriam Rebekah Lodge No. 24, Saskatoon, conducted a very beautiful and impressive memorial service, which was witnessed by approximately four hundred people. A great deal of care had been given to the preparation of the service, and the Rebekahs of Saskatoon are to be commended for the impressive manner in which it was conducted. It was generally conceded as being one of the most impressive memorial services that has been held under the auspices of the I.O.O.F. for many years.

The registration of the representatives from the lodges commenced at 8 o'clock on Wednesday morning, and when the sessions were opened at 9 a.m., approximately one hundred and seventy-five representatives and Past Grand Lodges had registered, forty-one of whom were in attendance at Grand Lodge for the first time.

A telegram was received from Brother W. C. Needham, Grand Master, in Vancouver, advising that he would not be present on account of illness, and the sessions were presided over by Brother John Macklem, Deputy Grand Master, as acting Grand Master until the officers for 1945-46 were installed into office.

The following Grand Lodge officers were present for the sessions:

Bro. John Macklem, Deputy Grand Master, Saskatoon; Bro. Q. S. Sundstrom, Grand

Warden, Kennedy; Bro. F. D. Gray, P.G.R., Grand Secretary, Regina; Bro. J. E. Tanner, P.G.R., Grand Treasurer, Regina; Bro. H. S. Sweet, Grand Marshal, Aylsham; Bro. E. J. Hopper, Grand Chaplain, Wynyard; Bro. Grice Blythman, Grand Guardian, Maple Creek; Bro. R. E. Preston, Grand Herald, Watrous.

Bro. W. G. Scott, Grand Conductor, of Rouleau, was unable to attend on account of a bereavement in his family. The acting Grand Master appointed Brother W. C. Campbell, P.G.M., as acting Deputy Grand Master, and Brother D. F. Spencer, P.G.M., as acting Grand Conductor.

Following the conferring of the Grand Lodge and Past Grand degrees by Brother Q. S. Sundstrom, Grand Warden, the acting Grand Master appointed Bro. L. G. Neal, Regina, journal clerk; Bro. V. C. McBrayne, Regina, Reading Clerk; Bro. Peter Dawson, Saskatoon, press reporter, and Bro. J. H. Muldoon, Carievale and Bro. A. E. Mathieson, Qu'Appelle, Grand Messengers. The Grand Secretary appointed Bro. John Barker, of Allan, custodian of the secret work.

Letters were read from Bro. F. J. Knudsen, a member of the committee on Judiciary, Bro. Fred A. Magee, chairman of the committee on Laws of Subordinates, and Bro. W. A. Enticknap, a member of the committee on State of the Order, advising that it would not be possible for them to attend, and the acting Grand Master appointed Bro. F. E. Bregg of Semans, to the vacancy on the committee on Judiciary, and he also appointed Bro. D. H. McFarlane, of Swift Current, to the same committee to replace Bro. H. W. White of Saskatoon, who was unavoidably absent.

Bro. E. J. Brimacombe, of Tisdale, and Bro. Wm. Archer, P.G.R., members of the committee on Legislation, were unavoidably absent, and the acting Grand Master appointed Bro. J. L. Reed of Watrous and Bro. J. W. Swanson, of Milestone, to the vacancies.

Bro. Ed. Downie of Perdue and Bro. W. A. Enticknap of Kincaid, members of the committee on State of the Order, were not in attendance, and the acting Grand Master appointed Bro. W. C. Cameron of Arcola, and Bro. Ernest Savage of Rouleau, to the said committee.

Bro. E. Josephson of Radville, a member of the committee on mileage and per diem, was not present, and the acting Grand Master appointed Bro. C. R. Wilkie, of Mawer, to the vacancy on the committee.

A letter from the office of the Alberta Old Age Pensioners Society, was presented, and by resolution it was ordered filed, as the Grand Lodge was of the opinion that the letter did not come within its jurisdiction.

A resolution from district No. 22 requesting the Grand Lodge to appoint a district organizer or fieldman, was referred to the special committee subsequently reported, and recommended that a suitable man be selected as fieldman with fulltime employment; that every lodge in the jurisdiction be asked to contribute at least $25.00 toward defraying the salary and expenses of the fieldman; that the fieldman be paid a salary of $1800.00 per annum and expenses, and that such fieldman be placed under the jurisdiction of the Grand Master and Grand Secretary. After considerable discussion the Grand Lodge, by resolution, referred the report of the Special Committee to the Advisory Board for further consideration.

A letter was presented from Bro. Wm. McBride, P.G.M., now residing in Vancouver, advising that as a result of an invitation received from the Grand Master, he anticipated with pleasure representing the Grand Lodge of Saskatchewan at the British Columbia sessions which were being held in Vancouver on the same dates as the Saskatchewan sessions.

A letter was presented from the Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Alberta, advising that Bro. A. C. Woodard, Deputy Grand Master, had been appointed fraternal delegate from Alberta to the Saskatchewan sessions.

A letter was received from Bro. Robert Duff, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Manitoba, advising that Bro. S. H. Paterson, Grand Master, would attend the Saskatchewan sessions as a fraternal delegate from the Grand Lodge of Manitoba.

These letters were referred to the committee on fraternal relations, which committee commended the Grand Master for appointing Bro. McBride as fraternal delegate to British Columbia, and also voiced its appreciation of having fraternal delegates present from the jurisdictions of Alberta and Manitoba. The committee tendered Bro. Q. S. Sundstrom, Grand Warden, a vote of appreciation for the splendid report of his visit to the Grand Lodge of Alberta, following his appointment by the Grand Master.

One of the outstanding events of the 1945 sessions was the attendance of Bro. Jas. S. Lombard, Grand Chaplain of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and special deputy of the Grand Sire. The addresses delivered by him, by the fraternal delegates, and Bro. W. C. Smalley, Past Grand Chaplain of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, who attended the sessions on Thursday for a short while during his stay in Saskatoon, were indeed inspiring to the brothers present, and were enthusiastically received by them.

Bro. Q. S. Sundstrom, Grand Warden, recommended that the Grand Lodge enact the necessary legislation to provide for a Grand Jurisdictional Lodge, and his recommendation was concurred in by the Grand Lodge upon adoption of the report of the committee on legislation.

Bro. Sundstrom also expressed a hope that in the not too distant future the jurisdiction of Saskatchewan would build an Odd Fellows home similar to the one in the jurisdiction of Manitoba.

The report of the Grand Secretary showed a net increase in membership during 1944 of 157 members, and it also recorded Milestone Lodge No. 60 as having won the M. D. Cadwell shield with a percentage gain in membership of over 220%.

The report further showed Maple Creek Lodge No. 5 as having increased its membership to 111, making it the fifth largest lodge in the jurisdiction.

Forty-nine brothers passed to the Great Beyond during the year, and their contributions to Odd Fellowship were fittingly referred to in the report of the committee on necrology. The committee, in its report, also referred to the passing away of Bro. W. J. Huntingford, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Alberta, and the passing of Sister Mrs. E. J. Hopper, wife of the Grand Chaplain of Saskatchewan.

The proposed amendments to the Grand Lodge Constitution and By-laws and the Subordinate Lodge Constitution, presented by Bro. K. F. Cleall, P.D.D.G.M., on behalf of District No. 20, which amendments suggested the payment of a funeral benefit of $100.00 from the Home fund upon the death of every unsuspended member, and which also suggested the increase of the Home fund tax from $1.00 per annum to $2.00 per annum, were not concurred in by the Grand Lodge.

The amendments to sub-section 42 of Section XVIII of the Grand Lodge Constitution, giving the lodges the power to create a special fund for the relief of distress both within and without the Order, and for any worthy charity or community activity, without requiring a dispensation from the Grand Master, were adopted by the Grand Lodge.

As a result of a circular letter which was forwarded to the lodges shortly after the 1944 Grand Lodge sessions, donations totalling $300.46 were received for the ambulance fund, and as the fund owed the Home fund $181.88, the latter fund was reimbursed to that extent, and the balance of $118.58 was placed to the credit of the Home fund.

Following the severe storm which struck Kamsack, Saskatchewan, in August, 1944, the lodges were circularized asking for donations to the Kamsack emergency fund, and total donations of $1,015.42 were forwarded to the Grand Secretary's office and transmitted by him to the trustees of the above fund. In addition to the foregoing donations two lodges forwarded their donations, amounting to $618.95, direct to the secretary of the Kamsack relief fund.

When the books closed on April 30th, 1945, it was shown that twenty-seven brothers in Saskatchewan had been granted life memberships upon the payment of the required fees, the majority of the life members being members of Maple Creek Lodge No. 5.

A resolution from Kincaid Lodge No. 144, requesting that the annual terms be made optional so as to begin at the first of January or the first of July, was not concurred in by the committee on legislation, and the committee's report was adopted by the Grand Lodge.

A resolution from Aylsham Lodge No. 186, requesting that the necessary legislation be enacted so as to permit the institution of junior branches of Odd Fellowship in Saskatchewan, was referred to the committee on legislation, and the said committee recommended that no action be taken at the present time, and its recommendation was approved by the Grand Lodge.

The special committee appointed at the 1944 sessions to consider the advisability of soliciting donations to the Odd Fellows Emergency War Relief fund, presented its report to the advisory board, and recommended that the fund be created, and the lodges circularized. The advisory board concurred in the committee's report, and when the Grand Lodge books closed on April 30th, four lodges had donated a total of $71.00.

The report of the Home fund trustees showed that five meetings had been held during the year; that three new grants totalling $75.00 per month had been authorized; that two grants had been increased; that two grants had been reduced; that two grants which had been discontinued had, at subsequent meetings, been reinstated, and that nine grants had been discontinued.

The report also showed that $4,476.14 had been received from Home fund assessments, $4,329.14 had been received from the interest and dividends; that $171.45 had been received from the Loverna farm; that $782.50 had been received from the Otto Jahr farm; that $349.00 had been received from the Wynkoop farm; that $500.00 had been received from the Garritty mortgage, and that $316.61 had been received from other sources, making total cash receipts for the year, exclusive of the money received from the sale of the bonds, of $10,924.84.

The expenditures from the fund for benevolent purposes for the year amounted to $4,521.19, as compared with the expenditures for the previous year of $5,381.01. The total amount expended for benevolent purposes since June, 1923, to April 30th, 1945, was shown as $182,755.99, and during that time one hundred and ninety adults and two hundred and fifty-seven children have been assisted.

The value of the fund as of April 30th, 1945, was shown as $111,711.94, an increase of $150.43 as compared with the previous year.

The report of the attendance shield trustees recommended that the shield be presented to Milestone Lodge No. 60, the lodge which showed the highest percentage attendance during the year. Upon adoption of the committee's report Bro. John Macklem, Grand Master, presented the representative from Milestone lodge with the shield.

Bro. J. A. Hagerman, Past Grand Sire, spoke in connection with the Odd Fellows' War Emergency Relief fund, and urged that the fund be given the support of every lodge and every brother in the jurisdiction.

The Grand Lodge, by resolution, decided to hold its 1946 annual sessions in the city of Regina on Wednesday and Thursday, June 12th and 13th.

Bro. H. A. Green, P.G.M., upon the invitation of Bro. John Macklem, Grand Master-elect, installed into office the Grand Lodge officers, and following the installation of officers, Bro. W. W. Perrie, P.G.M., upon the invitation of the Grand Master, installed into office the District Deputy Grand Masters who were present.

The Grand Lodge officers and Grand Representatives for the ensuing year will be found on page 16.

The Home fund trustees for 1946 are as follows: Jas. Page, Kennedy, Chairman; W. J. Moffat, Moose Jaw; H. A. Green, P.G.M., Humboldt; P. H. B. Townsend, Balgonie; J. W. Swanson, Milestone, and S. J. Lucas, Regina.

Odd Fellows Seek Travelling Gavels

Elston, Sask., Odd Fellows were hosts to three car loads of brothers from Humboldt No. 100, and two car loads from Saskatoon Lodges Nos. 29 and 67, on August 22nd. Grand Master John Macklem and D.D.G.M. Fred Wallace, of Saskatoon, were among those present.

Saskatchewan Grand Lodge was presented with a pair of gavels by a member of Delisle Lodge No. 105 a number of years ago. These gavels were to be known as the travelling gavels. One of the rules is that at least 10 visiting brothers of one lodge must be present and sign the travelling gavel register.

Under direction of the Grand Master Bro. F. F. Bates, P.D.D.G.M., has been appointed to see that these gavels do travel this year, and he is surely stirring up the interest that is necessary to make these gavels meet the objective. Keep pushing, Frank Since Grand Lodge Session held in June, the Grand Master presented them to his home lodge No. 29. Delisle No. 105 came in 35 miles to Saskatoon, then North Star No. 67 of Saskatoon went to Delisle. Allan Lodge No. 66 journeyed in 40 miles to No. 67 to bring them back to the country. Elston No. 138 took a short trip of six miles to life them from Allan, so next to jump at the chance for these coveted gavels was Humboldt. This meant a round trip of over 150 miles. Now a little bird has told us that Watrous Lodge is hot on their trail.

To top off a good evening, the N.G., Bro. Wyshynski called on the Grand Master, who gave an interesting talk on his visits to other lodges and passed on many good pointers as the result of these visitations. He told the brothers about the advisory board of the Grand Lodge dividing Saskatchewan into five divisions with an executive Grand Lodge officer in charge of each division with the anticipation of holding regional conferences at one point in each division this fall. He also stressed the action of the advisory board in soliciting the lodges for a substantial donation to start a Field Man Work Fund, stating that the advisory board had used several dormant lodges as an experiment during the past year and that the results were gratifying; so much so that if the response to his appeal was good, the advisory board planned on procuring the services of some Odd Fellow as a field man as soon as possible.

With all these visiting brothers, Elston didn't take a back seat either that night because the lodge room was taxed for seating accommodation, which goes a long way in having any brother say, "By gosh, I wouldn't have missed that meeting for a good bit."

When Bro. Alfred C. Woodard, of Edmonton, visited the Saskatchewan Grand Lodge sessions in June, he gave Bro. Carl L. Harris, P.G.M., of Elston Lodge, a book of subscription blanks for the Alberta Odd Fellow. Bro. Harris told the boys about it on Wednesday night and lo and behold, they swamped him with dollar bills and he had to tell some of them that he had run out of subscription receipts. Send us more, Al, and there is a possible chance we might start a race for subscriptions between Alberta and Saskatchewan. What do you say?—C.L.H.

The success of your Lodge depends on you.

LODGE PROGRAMS

Odd Fellows' and Rebekah lodges in all parts of Alberta are resuming their fall activities, after the summer vacation period. They have a big season ahead. There are many matters that will require the attention of lodges, matters on which close study and deliberation will be needed.

Now that the war is over and people are making plans for peace time work, there is a great opportunity for the lodges to play a full part. They should resolve anew to observe the Five Point Program enunciated by Grand Master Fox.

Many members are returning from overseas service and they will be helpful in the consideration of post-war rehabilitation problems.

This will be a great opportunity to extend the work and influence of Odd Fellowship in Alberta.

During the coming months, no doubt every lodge will endeavor to increase membership. Not only is it a commendable object but it is necessary also to strengthen and hold the membership.

The lodge is what the members make it. They should arrange interesting programs, make sure that members will be eager to return to the meetings and maintain this interest.

Some salient points in building up a strong, successful lodge have been published by the Massachusetts Odd Fellow. They are worth thinking over. Here they are:

A good, live lodge cannot be seriously affected by external conditions. If the spirit of fraternity and brotherly love is alive within, there is no external condition, not even the overworked excuse of "unfavorable location and lack of material from which to draw new members," that can cause it to give up the ghost and surrender its charter.

A lodge is whatever its members make it, and is the expression of the spirit and interest of the members in the teachings of the Order. A "working lodge" does not necessarily mean a lodge that is doing degree work most of the time—and dropping as many old members for non-payment of dues with every report. But a real, live "working lodge" is one that holds regular meetings, whether its members be many or few, and in which the spirit and teachings of Odd Fellowship are at work for the benefit of its members and the uplift of humanity.

Such a lodge need not worry about temporary financial difficulties nor a lapse in applications for membership. The first will be overcome in time and the second will soon adjust itself to the spirit that emanates from within—for true Odd Fellowship is built from within and not from without the walls of a lodge room and the hearts of its members.—Massachusetts Odd Fellow.

ADVERTISE YOUR LODGE

If your lodge does not have an ad on the Lodge Directory page, make a motion at the next meeting to place an ad in your fraternal paper.

Overdose of Program Kills Lodge Efforts

By C. A. Wheeler,

A lodge meeting, well advertised and well attended, had its enthusiasm and effect for good killed by an overdose of program. This obituary is regretfully written in the hope that others will not administer such copious doses of program.

It was in a fine little city where there had once been an active I.O.O.F. lodge, that some of the enthusiastic members of the former lodge conceived the splendid idea of reorganizing the lodge, or establishing a new one. The idea conceived was to have a public meeting to which all former members of the lodge were invited. A splendid banquet was prepared and the meeting was well advertised.

When time for the meeting came the lodge hall was filled. The banquet was fine, but the program was too long, and in addition to the prepared program, which was too long, the chairman of the meeting had the mistaken idea that he should call on everyone present, who would, to say a few words. Several accepted the invitation, but none used "few words." One who arose to say a few words consumed forty minutes in a very uninteresting history of early education in Texas. Another consumed twenty-five minutes in telling of his some thirty years connection with Odd Fellowship.

It was 11:45 p.m. when the meeting finally closed. More than half of the crowd left before closing. Those who remained had been bored to the limit of endurance by the long program consisting mostly of long-winded speeches on subjects foreign to the purpose of the meeting.

The meeting was killed without accomplishing its purpose. No further effort has been made to organize a lodge in that place. The enthusiasts who planned the meeting were so disgusted they will not try again.

MORAL

Make your programs short. If you have an abundance of program material, save some of it for a future occasion. Never give an overdose.

Make your programs reflect credit on the Order.

Never call on anyone who is not on the prepared program.

Make your programs so pointed, so snappy, so short, that everyone will wish you had gone ten minutes longer. They will then come on your next occasion because they will not have suffered from an overdose.

REBEKAH ACTIVITIES

ADHERENCE TO GOLDEN RULE HIGH PRINCIPLE OF ORDER

By MRS. M. GILKES

President of the Rebekah Assembly, I.O.O.F.

The charm and beauty of our Order is not in its ritualistic perfection, nor in its strength of numbers in membership, but rather in our daily living and our adherence to the golden rule.

That we may reach the high standard of perfection in Rebekah Oddfellowship toward which we are striving, that we may more fully appreciate the beautiful principles upon which our

Order is founded, may the sentiment expressed in the following lines be the sincere desire of each sister:

Teach us to do the best we can,
To help and cheer our fellow man.
Teach us to loose our selfish need,
And glory in the larger deed:
Which smooths the road and lightens
the day
To all who chance to come our way.

New Jurisdictional Lodge Instituted

The recording secretary, Sister W. Blight's name was omitted from the officers installed on July 9th by Esther Rebekah Lodge No. 1, Calgary. This was an error on the writer's part.

A page in the minute book has been set aside in memory of Sister M. E. Loudon, P.D.D.P.

The regular meeting on August 13 was opened with 26 officers and members and 25 visitors present. The Vice Grand reported four sisters were on the road to recovery from illness.

There was a very good attendance at the memorial service held in the Union cemetery on Sunday afternoon, August 12th, at three o'clock. In the absence of Bro. W. C. Gordon, Grand Warden, the Grand Master, Bro. Charles Fox, presided. The program was as follows:

Hymn—O God Our Help in Ages Past.
Prayer — Bro. Rev. L. F. Rowe, B.A.
Solo—O Love that Wilt Not Let Me Go.
Sister A. Walsh, Anoka No. 21

Scripture Lesson — Psalm 91.—Sister Ada Day, Secretary, Rebekah Assembly.

Reading the Names of Deceased Members — Bro. M. S. Saunders, P.G.M., P.G.R.

Address — Bro. Rev. L. F. Rowe, B.A.
Hymn — Onward Christian Soldiers.

Benediction — Bro. Rev. L. F. Rowe, B.A.

At the close of the service a wreath was placed on the I.O.O.F. plot in the Union cemetery and one placed on the Field of Honor in the Burnsland cemetery.

Sister Bernice Bailey, V.G., will be leaving Calgary in the near future and has resigned her office. The Lodge accepted with regret this resignation, and at our next meeting will nominate a member to fill this vacancy.

The Noble Grand turned over the gavel to Sister Gilkes, President of the Rebekah Assembly, for the purpose of instituting the Jurisdictional Lodge to be known as Home Rebekah Lodge No. 300. Sister E. Saunders, Vice President, was presented by Sister Scott, Assembly Marshal, and Sister Saunders then presented the sisters who were applicants for the Charter, after which Assembly Secretary Day read the names of the Charter members, which were as follows: Sister M. MacGregor, P.P., A. E. Rogers, P.P., E. Kidd, Assembly Treasurer, F. Duckworth, P.N.G., and A. Day, Assembly Secretary. Sister Jean Lamb, D.D.P., then installed these members into their respective offices, assisted by the following Past Noble Grands: Sisters E. Gadsby, Deputy Marshal, M. Burrell, Deputy Warden, R. Ferguson, Recording Secretary, and H. Desson, Treasurer.

Sisters M. MacGregor, N.G.; A. E. Rogers, V.G., Ada Day, Secretary; Flora Duckworth, assistant secretary; Effie Kidd, Treasurer.

Sister Ada Day, Assembly Secretary, read a paper which gave us quite a lot of knowledge concerning the Jurisdictional Lodge, known as Home Rebekah Lodge No. 300.

Sister Gilkes, President, announced that the law is the secretary and treasurer of the Rebekah Assembly have to hold their offices in Home Rebekah Lodge No. 300, and in closing thanked Esther Lodge No. 1 for having this lodge instituted and its officers installed at our meeting on August 13th.

Sister A. Tait, N.G., requested the officers of Esther Lodge to return the lodge rituals at the close of the meeting.

Lodge closed at 10:10 p.m., and Sister Flora Heagle and her refreshment committee served lunch in the banquet hall.

Teach me to feel another's woe,
To hide the fault I see
That mercy I to others show,
That mercy show to me.

We thank God for making wars to cease.—Z.T.D.

Dominion Lodge Installs Officers

At the regular meeting of Dominion Lodge No. 41, Lethbridge, on August 23rd, the Noble Grand, Sister Kay Rea, presided and Sister Elizabeth Allison was installed as Vice Grand. Sister Florence Stafford, D.D.P. for District 17, was in charge of the installation and was assisted by Sister Lily Allison, D. Marshal, Sister Helen McNab, D. Warden, and Sister Mabel Watson, D. Chaplain.

The Rebekah anniversary proclamation was read and a committee consisting of Sisters Eva Lowe, Jane Henderson and Helen McNab was appointed to make arrangements.

An application for membership was received from a prospective member, so it looks as though the degree team better get busy.

Sister Mary Roseworn has returned from Coutts where she has been with her son and daughter-in-law since her accident.

Sister Joan Sangster's husband has received his discharge from the R.C.A.F. and they plan to make their home in Manitoba. Don't know exactly where, but some backwoods place many miles from the nearest lodge.—R.M.

Esther Rebekahs Install Vice Grand

At the regular meeting of Esther Rebekah Lodge No. 1, Calgary, on August 27, the Noble Grand called the lodge to order at 8:15 p.m. There were four officers absent and 25 officers and members and six visitors present.

Past Dept. Commander Major C. R. Sharman introduced Bro. Peter Dean, P.G., Esther Lodge No. 12, Attleboro, Massachusetts, U.S. The N.G. extended to Bro. Dean a very cordial welcome.

Sister Bernice Bailey, V.G., reported Sister Sheffield bereaved by the death of her brother at the coast, and Sister Drake ill.

Alberta Lodge No. 1 extended an invitation to Esther Rebekah Lodge members and their husbands or friends to attend a corn roast.

The committee appointed on the anniversary of Rebekah Degree of Odd Fellowship is Sister Emma Line MacLeod, P.N.G., and Sister Emily Godfrey.

Sister Alberta Andrews, chaplain, having been elected to fill the vacancy of Vice Grand for the remainder of the term, was duly installed into that office, and Sister Alberta Balmer was appointed chaplain and installed into that office by Sister Jean Lamb, D.D.P. and staff of P.N.G.'s, Sisters Elizabeth Gadsby, Deputy Marshal; Margaret Burrell, Deputy Warden; Isabel Carrington, Chaplain, and Amy Sayer, pianist.

Sisters Haskins and Dixon received several birthday greeting cards on August 22. They thank their unknown friend for remembering their birth date.

The Noble Grand called on Bro. Dean for a few words. In addressing the officers, members and visitors, Bro. Dean stated he had enjoyed very much his visit with us, also the discussion on the Rebekah Veteran Jewels. As all these jewels are manufactured in his home town, Attleboro. In closing his talk to our lodge Bro. Dean quoted:

"To each of us, our Creator has given a memory. It is continually with us throughout the journey of life. It serves many purposes, one of the greatest of these purposes is that we may have roses in December; that through the long, bleak, dreary days we may revive and refresh our lives by going back to those days. When, in the springtime or summer of life we were privileged to live in a beautiful atmosphere, and enjoy the fragrance of the flowers and the beauty which then surrounded us, and gaze again in the faces of those with whom we were associated in Friendship, Love and Truth. In this manner I trust my memory will ever serve me well and continue to enrich my life in the future as these associations have enriched it in the past."

On August 31, there were about 75 Odd Fellows and Rebekahs and sweethearts at the corn roast. All enjoyed the program very much, also the sweet corn.

The Noble Grand will be pleased to welcome every member in the lodge room for the fall work and expresses the hope that all have had a most enjoyable holiday.

Honor Certificate to Rebekah Lodge

Here is a brief report on lodge work from Silver Leaf Rebekah Lodge No. 99, Stavely, beginning January 1.

On January 4, we met with Beaver Lodge No. 27, for joint installation with installing teams from Mountain View lodges No. 23 and No. 4 McLeod. Officers of Foothills Lodges Nos. 105 and 13, Claresholm, were also installed at this meeting.

We held a card party February 22, the proceeds being $21.00.

Our Assembly representative, Sister Mildred Cochlan, gave a splendid report on March 8, after which she presented our Noble Grand with an Honor Roll certificate. We are very proud that our lodge is on the Honor Roll.

On May 10, we initiated eight candidates and had visitors from McLeod, Cayley, Claresholm and Nanton. Our District Deputy President, Sister Bella Grice, read her commission. Short addresses were given by members of the visiting lodges. This proved to be a very enjoyable evening.

We visited Nanton on April 25, Cayley on June 12, and Claresholm on June 19. On June 14 we entertained our official visitor, Sister L. Goodman, Vice President of the Rebekah Assembly, also several members from Foothills No. 105. One candidate was initiated.

A former member of this lodge, Sister Stella Little, was reinstated. We are very glad to have her back with us again.

On June 28 we had a short business meeting, after which we enjoyed a social evening, playing bingo, etc.

We were sorry to lose one of our members, Sister Bertha Olson. She is now a member of Anoka Rebekah Lodge No. 21, and we wish her every future success.

We wish to extend our congratulations to our Noble Grand, Sister Margaret Scott, on the birth of a son.

Jewel Rebekahs Entertain Members

Jewel Rebekah Lodge No. 25 entertained members and friends at a lively Bingo party after our last regular meeting, August 16. Coming at a time when activities are at a low ebb during holiday months and when many members are away for the summer, it was indeed a bright spot in our summer activities. Everyone present joined wholeheartedly in the carefree pleasures and hilarious fun of the evening entertainment. Some were even fortunate or lucky enough to walk away with as many as three prizes. Brothers A. Neumann and H. MacDonald very kindly and efficiently acted as masters of ceremonies.

At the close refreshments were served by the officers of the lodge. Thanks are extended to all those who came out and made the evening so enjoyable and successful.—J.M.

Adeline Rebekahs Reopen Fall Term

Members of Adeline Rebekah Lodge No. 54 opened the fall term with a regular meeting on Thursday, Sept. 6. A good attendance was present and everyone seemed happy to be back after the summer recess and eager to make the fall term a busy and profitable time for the lodge.

Sister M. Ganderton, N.G., and Sister R. Taylor, V.G., had been appointed a committee to attend a meeting in connection with the Wainwright Community Committee to discuss the erection of a suitable war memorial for local boys who lost their lives in World War II, and gave a very interesting and instructive report, after which the Rebekahs made a motion to give such a project their full support.

Plans were made to hold a social evening on Thursday evening, Sept. 20, after lodge in commemoration of the ninety-fourth anniversary of the inauguration of the Rebekah degree.

During the lunch hour after lodge Sister Mary Ganderton, N.G., in a few well chosen words, presented Sister Kathleen Hornberger, P.N.G., with a pin-up lamp on behalf of the members of Adeline Lodge. Sister Hornberger is planning to make her home in Calgary in the near future and will be greatly missed by all as she has been a faithful member for a number of years.—D.P.

Memorial Service Held at Crossfield

The members of Justice Rebekah Lodge No. 62 and Crossfield Lodge No. 42 held a memorial service jointly with the Canadian Legion at the local cemetery on Sept. 2.

About 200 persons attended this ceremony, which was in charge of Bro. Fox, Grand Master, who addressed the gathering briefly. Rev. Howey then gave an inspiring address on "The Beauty and Colors of Flowers, and their significance in times of trouble and sorrow." This was followed by a hymn and a prayer.

The members then proceeded to decorate the graves of their departed sisters and brothers.

Generous donations of flowers were in evidence as the organizations in charge, also individuals, decorated nearly every grave in the cemetery.

The committee in charge of the arrangements are to be commended on the successful "Decoration Day" services, and we thank the public for their support in making the service the success it proved to be.—M.F.

Tender Farewell to Devoted Member

It was with much regret that the members of Unity Rebekah Lodge No. 26 bade farewell to Sister Isobel Kidney, who is leaving the city to reside at Whitecourt, Alberta.

Sister Kidney has been a faithful and devoted member of her lodge and will be greatly missed by all her associates.

Following the regular meeting on Aug. 28, Sister N. McCombs on behalf of the lodge presented Sister Kidney with a Rebekah pin.

Recently 15 members of the War Service Unit met at the home of Sister Alberta Wilson, when a most enjoyable social evening was held in honor of Sister Kidney. During the evening a presentation of a fitted leather writing case was made to the guest of honor by Sister Florence Harris who, in a few well chosen words, expressed appreciation for all Sister Kidney had done for the unit during the past four and a half years.

The good wishes of all accompany Sister Kidney to her new home.

At the conclusion of the last regular meeting of the lodge, Aug. 28, a very enjoyable "Grocery" Bingo was held in the lower hall, arranged by Sister Mabel Briggs and her committee. There was a very good attendance. Now that the fall and winter season is approaching we hope this is only the forerunner of many more similar entertainments.—C.E.H.

THE OLD TIMERS

By Douglas Malloch

Youth laughs at us old timers,
And maybe youth has cause,
For when your hair gets white and thin
You don't expect applause.
Perhaps we're not so handsome
Perhaps we're not so spry,
But when youth gets old as us
Then youth won't wonder why.

For we have fought the battles,
And we have led the van,
And have made this life an easier road
For many a younger man.
And he will do tomorrow
A lot of things that pay
Because old timers thought them out
And tried them yesterday.

We know the world is changing,
The ways of trade are new;
Men put new labels on their goods,
New roofs on houses, too.
But still the old foundation
That some old timers laid,
Remains the cornerstone of all
The progress men have made.

So gather 'round, old timers,
The friends of long ago,
The fellows folks were glad to meet,
The fellows good to know.
So e try their friends to purchase,
But seldom friends acquire,
For friendship, like all other gold,
Must first go through the fire.

We've known the snows of winter,
We've known the rains of spring,
But when your heart is warm within,
That doesn't mean a thing.
We've made a little money,
We've lost a whole lot more,
But money was not all we sought
Nor all we hungered for.

So here is to us old timers
Whatever youth may think,
Here's a toast to Odd Fellowship,
In Odd Fellowship to drink.
Youth laughs at us old timers
So soon upon the shelves,
But if youth will not drink to us,
We'll drink the toast ourselves.

—Cesky Odd Fellow.

ODD FELLOWSHIP IN ACTION ON EUROPEAN BATTLE FRONTS

By C. A. Wheeler,
Deputy Grand Sire

A wonderful story has just come to me. For obvious reasons I cannot give names or locations, and while I do not vouch for the authenticity of the story, it could have happened and I believe it did happen.

Somewhere on the European battle front a few months ago an American soldier, who wore upon his wrist a bracelet presented to him by the Odd Fellow's Lodge to which he belonged back in the States, for some reason or another became detached from his company. While trying to make his way back to his own lines, he was captured by a German soldier who could speak English. This German soldier discovered the bracelet on the wrist of his captive and asked him if he was an Odd Fellow and where his membership was. The captive immediately told him. Then the German responded, "I was once a member of an Odd Fellow's lodge in Austria and I sincerely regretted it when my lodge was disbanded."

After some further conversation the German soldier said, "My orders are to kill all American soldiers found in this area but I am going to give you a chance for your life. Start running and if I miss you and you get safely back to your lines, just remember that I am a poor shot when it comes to shooting my brother."

The American soldier started running, the German shot at him three times, each shot a clear miss. The American soldier made it back to his lines and the story had reached me. The American soldier will always remember the German who was a poor shot when it came to shooting his brother.
